Fuel Cents/ Food and Fuel For Less Rewards Program
Terms and Conditions
Revised August 26, 2019

1. The Cox Foods Personal Rewards program is designed and intended to provide an individual customer with fuel discount rewards based on the individual customer purchase levels at a Cox Foods Group store offering the program.
2. To qualify for Food and Fuel For Less Rewards, you must use your Cox Foods Personal Rewards card, key fob or phone number (where phone number authentication has been implemented) at participating Cox Foods stores. Offer is valid only at participating Cox Foods locations. Individual Cox Foods stores currently participating in the rewards program are available online at www.coxfoods.com and are identified by the “Rewards” icon on the store Website homepage.
3. Some items, such as tobacco, alcoholic beverages and certain money services may not be included in the calculation of Food and Fuel For Less Rewards at all participating locations due to local legal or operational restrictions.
4. Food and Fuel For Less Rewards may not be awarded on the taxes collected or discounts of a qualifying transaction.
5. Qualifying Purchases must be made inside the store at checkout registers where the Cox Foods Personal Rewards Card is scanned, entered or when a phone number associated with the card account is entered - in stores where phone number authentication has been implemented.
6. Members of the same family or household residing at the same address may share use of a personal rewards card. Misuse of the Personal Rewards card outside of intended program purposes may result in cancellation of the card account and forfeiture of accumulated rewards.
7. The Food and Fuel For Less Rewards earned through Qualifying Purchases will be recorded on your Cox Foods Personal Rewards card account and are valid through the last day of the second full month following the month in which the Rewards was issued, unless otherwise stated in the reward issuance receipt.
